These next few weeks as we approach Easter, we’ll look closely at the last week of Jesus life. Some of the most impactful things He taught about how live this “new Jesus life” are recorded from his final week.

On the night of his betrayal, Jesus paused to state one final lesson, how we, as His followers can live fruitful lives. The key, He said, to being fruitful is not a matter of working harder, going faster or performing better, but rather something He called “abiding”.
