Sharing and Prayer

*The Lord's Prayer

*Our Father, Who art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy Name.
Thy Kingdom come.
Thy will be done,
In earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
As we forgive them that trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
But deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
The power, and the glory,
For ever and ever.
Amen.*

We live in a culture of condemnation. Many people find God unapproachable because they suspect He is critical and condemning of our imperfections. Even more struggle to silence the voice of self-condemnation because of past mistakes we've made. While the work of Jesus on the Cross is intended to set us free, many of us continue to struggle with the feeling of being condemned (or worse, in the habit of condemning others).

Today we'll consider where do we go when we feel the sting of being wrongly judged and condemned?
